133.-(1) A mortgagee who exercises a power to sell the mortgaged land, including the exercise of the power to sell in pursuance of an order of a court, owes a duty of care to the mortgagor, any guarantor of the whole or any part of the sums advanced to the mortgagor, any lender under a subsequent mortgage including a customary mortgage or under a lien to obtain the best price reasonably obtainable at the time of sale.

(2) Where the price at which the mortgaged land is sold is twenty-five per centum or more below the average price at which comparable interests in land of the same character and quality are being sold in the open market, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the mortgagee is in breach of the duty imposed by subsection (1) and the mortgagor whose mortgaged land is being sold for that price may apply to a court for an order that the sale be declared void, but the fact that a mortgaged land is sold by the mortgagee at an undervalue being less than twenty-five per centum below the market price shall not be taken to mean that the mortgagee has complied with the duty imposed by subsection (1).

(3) It shall not be a defence to a proceeding against a mortgagee for breach of the duty imposed by subsection (1) that the mortgagee was acting as agent of or under a power of attorney from the mortgagor or any former mortgagor.

(3) A sale of the mortgaged land by a mortgagee in exercise of the power of sale shall be made in the prescribed form and the Registrar shall accept it as sufficient evidence that the power has been duly exercised.

(4) The court may from time to time vary or revoke any condition imposed by virtue of subsection (3).

(5) A court shall not exercise by virtue of subsection (3) of section 139 the powers conferred by this section unless it appears to the court not only that the mortgagor is likely to be able within a reasonable period to pay any amounts regarded (in accordance with subsection (3) of section 139) as due on account of the principal sum secured, together with the interest on those amounts, but also that he is likely to pay any further amounts that he would have expected to be required to pay on account of that sum and of interest on it if there had been no such provision as is referred to in subsection (3) of section 139 for earlier payment.

(6) Where the mortgagee under a mortgage of land to which neither subsection (1) nor subsection (2) of section 139 applies brings an action in which he claims possession of the mortgaged land, the court may exercise any of the powers conferred on it by subsection (7) of this section, if it appears to the court that, in the event of its exercising the power, the mortgagor will be able within the period of the next succeeding thirty days, to pay any sums due under the mortgage or to remedy a default consisting of a breach of any other obligation arising under or by virtue of the mortgage.
